DESCRIPCION DEL LIBRO AUSCHWITZ

«Cada día quería morir y cada día luchaba por sobrevivir»; Shlomo Venezia, superviviente de Auschwitz El campo de concentración de Auschwitz es el sinónimo del mal absoluto que el nazismo preconizó. Los judíos y gitanos sirvieron como cobayas para la experimentación diabólica de los nazis, gaseando a más de un millón de personas y matando de hambre, frío, agotamiento o, simplemente, de soledad y desesperanza. Sin embargo, muchos presos resistieron a la total deshumanización del campo esforzándose por mantener la dignidad. Cuidar la higiene, escribir o dibujar eran actos que ayudaban a sobrevivir. Esther Mucznik cuenta a través de las voces de aquellos que sobrevivieron al infierno de Auschwitz el insoportable silencio tras los asesinatos de niños, la barbarie de la experimentación médica sobre miles de hombres y mujeres o la lucha por sobrevivir en un campo de horror y muerte. Estos son los relatos que deben servir para mantener viva la memoria de aquellos que sucumbieron a la maquinaria del terror nazi.
