DESCRIPCION DEL LIBRO LUNA BENAMOR

Luna Benamor, una historia de amor imposible entre una joven judía sefardí y Luis Aguirre, cónsul español en la colonia de Gibraltar, es la apasionada historia que da título a una selección de relatos y bocetos que Blasco Ibañez previamente había publicado en la prensa, y que reunidos en un solo libro constituyeron su carta de presentación en su periplo por Argentina, país al que viajó en 1907 en calidad de conferenciante. La obra, por su naturaleza miscelánea, no sólo permite reconocer algunas constantes características en el quehacer creativo y editorial del autor, de su gran visión empresarial y oportunista, sino que también revelan al lector una especie de antología donde persisten temas, registros y personajes que responden a una serie de preocupaciones que no fueron fruto de una momentánea casualidad, sino que fueron constantes a lo largo de toda la producción en la imaginación del novelista.
